Three very different but very rich royal brothers have come of age. They are true modern Princes. In this sweet clean lovely romance we meet, Samantha, she is a local girl who just wants to save her small country from going broke with the high oil prices. She's an activist that you can't resist

Prince Will Throws a Royal Ball To Find the Perfect Wife

Sometimes love and fate have a different plan

- Prince Will is supposed to choose the best match for not only himself, but the crown. An honor bound good man he will do what is right for his small struggling kingdom because although a figure head now, they still wield power and leadership. When he comes up against Samantha he has never met a woman that cares about economic freedom enough to fight for it. A true woman of the people. Samantha believes things can be different. She also believes that Prince Will can make a difference in changing the way people choose to deal with their energy crisis instead of giving in to big oil and their demands. She and the prince are on opposite sides, but love as always is the great equalizer...
