Have you ever wondered what some writers underwent to coin some of their quotations? Have you ever been inspired or motivated by a particular inspirational quote? If you answered yes to even one of those questions, this book was written for you. Giant Gems not only gives you original quotations, but gives you an inside view of victory, through personal stories of some who have triumphed over a difficulty or challenge, because of the motivation they received through a particular quote. The writer also shares her personal story of love, betrayal, deception and ultimate triumph, as the Lord delivered and restored her from depression to joy and defeat to victory. This book will not only inspire you but motivate and move you to meditate upon the love of the Lord and his power to save.
